

Athlete of the Week

Brought to you by:

THE PROGRESS

AND ...

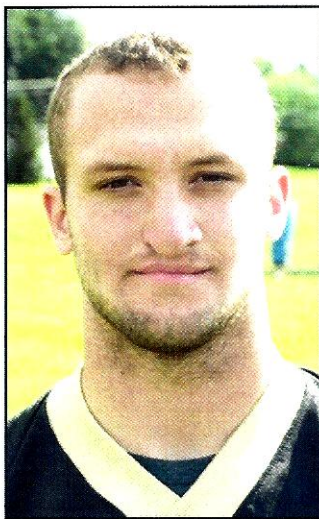

We Are Proud To Salute:

Curwensville football player Nick Stewart has been named The Progress' male Athlete of the Week for the week ending Sept. 3.

Stewart racked up 321 yards and five touchdowns, including a 98-yarder, on 18 carries to lead the Golden Tide to a 41-21 win over Smethport. Stewart also had a sack and a forced fumble on the defensive side of the ball.

"Nick is a hard-working, dedicated athlete who had an exceptional night at running the ball," Curwensville head coach Andy Evanko said. "He has vision to see the openings and the athleticism to get there. He is a very special football player and an absolute pleasure to be around, and we hope to see more games like that in his near future."

Clearfield tennis player Rachel Homan has been named The Progress' female Athlete of the Week for the week ending Sept. 3.

Homan had four wins for the Lady Bison in that span, carding singles and doubles wins against both Bradford and Punxsutawney.

"Rachel has been a consistently reliable player for four seasons," said Lady Bison head coach Brian Lytle. "There isn't a lot of flash with her, but instead you find a steady and controlled style of play. The team has looked to her leadership and talents as a guide. She's a great kid and has developed into a great tennis player and a great example of what a student-athlete should be."
