Glendale football player Derek Nash has been selected as the Progressland Male Athlete of the Week for the week ending Oct. 7. Nash was a key reason for the Vikings' 33-29 victory over Northern Bedford, their first victory over the Panthers since 1987. Nash rushed for 241 yards on 31 carries. He also scored three touchdowns, including what proved to be the game-winner in the fourth quarter.

"Derek was patient," said Glendale head coach Rick Kozak. "They (Northern Bedford) limited him in the first quarter, but he got some shots as the game wore on. He took advantage of what he was given. He is very good at finding an open area and then turning it upfield and going."

Philipsburg-Osceola soccer player Abby Peangatelli has been selected as The Progress' Female Athlete of the Week for the week ending Oct. 7.

Peangatelli helped lead the Lady Mounties to victories over Moshannon Valley, Tyrone, Meadowbrook Christian and Bald Eagle Area.

Peangatelli had five goals in four games, including a hat trick against the Damsels. She also had three assists and leads the team in scoring on the year.

"Abby is a tremendous athlete," said P-O head coach Mike Good. "I think the rest of the team really counts on her being in that central midfield. She has pretty much dominated the midfield this year. She is such a strong player. In her heart she is a defensive player, but we wanted to get her more involved offensively this season."
